“Don't worry about failures, worry about the chances you miss when you don't even try.”
Jack Canfield
I asked her if she was okay and she said "I'm fine, I swear". But when I looked into her eyes, I clearly saw her struggles there.

She quickly looked away and tried her best to smile. She said softly, "I'll make it through this, it's just taking me awhile."

I knew she was hurting, and I knew her pain was deep. But she felt the burden was hers, and hers alone to keep.

I reached out to her, and our hands entwined. I said, "I love you, my friend, so your burdens are also mine."

Tips for a Safe, Sober, Stress-Free Holiday

Holidays can be stressful for many people, especially new in recovery. This time is when old behaviors resurface and can put you at a high risk for relapse. Those in early recovery may feel overwhelmed for many reasons. Peer2Peer wants to assure you that it is possible to make it through the holiday season sober. Being Sober doesn’t mean you can’t have fun.

1. Practice Self-Care: Remind yourself every single morning how it feels to be in recovery

2. Game Plan: make a plan for dealing with triggers and cravings

3. Know when to say no: it’s ok to tell others you’re in recovery

4. Reach out: if you’re traveling go to a meeting. There are meetings everywhere.

5. Don’t hesitate to ask for help: bring a friend in recovery or someone in your recovery support network.

6. Create new traditions: avoid doing things that trigger behaviors, replace your old using patterns

7. Acknowledge your feelings:

8. Focus on what’s important: try not to stress about holiday gifts and expense

9. Establish firm boundaries: limit your time with family members who may drink

10. Most importantly HAVE FUN!!!!!!!

Sudoku is one of the most popular puzzle games of all time. The object of Sudoku is to fill a 9×9 grid with numbers so that each row, column, and 3×3 section contain all of the digits between 1 and 9. As a logic puzzle, Sudoku is also an excellent brain game. If you play Sudoku daily, you will soon start to see improvements in your concentration and overall brain power.

The goal of Sudoku is to fill in a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, row, and 3×3 section contain the numbers between 1 to 9. At the beginning of the game, the 9×9 grid will have some of the squares filled in. Your job is to use logic to fill in the missing digits and complete the grid. Don’t forget, a move is incorrect if:

- Any row contains more than one of the same number from 1 to 9
- Any column contains more than one of the same number from 1 to 9
- Any 3×3 grid contains more than one of the same number from 1 to 9
