P2P offers a safe and confidential place for individuals to learn from peers with lived experience, share their challenges and become empowered. Each individual path of recovery is respected and each individual is met at whatever point in recovery they are at. Membership at P2P is free and the only requirement for membership is that you self identify as having issues with substance use. Whether you have a day or 30 years, let us be a resource in your recovery. Come visit, attend a group or meeting, engage in 1-on-1 peer support, or fellowship with other people in recovery. Volunteer opportunities are available for people looking to give back and enrich our recovery community with their experience.

P2P is Recovery-Oriented:

Peer workers hold out hope to the members they serve, partnering with them to envision & achieve a meaningful & purposeful life. Through groups, 1-on-1 peer support & recovery coaching P2P helps members identify and build on strengths & empowers them to choose for themselves, recognizing that there are multiple pathways of recovery

P2P is Person-Centered:

P2P recovery support services are always directed by the members participating in services. 1-on-1 peer support & recovery coaching is personalized to align with the specific hopes, goals & preferences of the individual served & to respond to specific needs individuals identify

P2P is Voluntary:

P2P are partners or consultants to the members they serve. P2P does not dictate the types of services provided or the elements of recovery plans that will guide their work with peers. Participation in P2P is always contingent on peer choice.

P2P is Trauma-Informed:

P2P utilizes a strength-based framework that emphasizes physical, psychological, and emotional safety and creates opportunities for survivors to rebuild a sense of control and empowerment.

P2P is Relationship-Focused:

The relationship between the peer worker and the peer is the foundation on which peer recovery support services and support are provided. The relationship between the peer worker and peer is respectful, trusting, empathetic, collaborative, and mutual.
